

Join Your Residents' Association!

ちょうないじちかい かにゅう
～町内自治会に加入しましょう～

What is a Residents' Association?

Neighbours and nearby community members can support and assist each other in the event of trouble such as earthquakes. Residents' associations are organizations where residents cooperate on a voluntary basis to provide a safe and comfortable environment for the community.

Enquiries: Community Building Support Division at each ward office

Chuo ☎043-221-2105

Hanamigawa ☎043-275-6203

Inage ☎043-284-6105

Wakaba ☎043-233-8122

Midori ☎043-292-8105

Mihama ☎043-270-3122

Residents' Associations are Involved in Projects Such As:

Building Safe Communities

Safety patrols, installation and management of street lights, etc.

Creating Clean and Livable Communities

Management and cleaning of rubbish disposal stations, mowing grass and planting flowers on streets and in parks, recycling, etc.

Organizing Fun Events

Summer festivals, sports festivals, etc.

Disaster Prevention and Support

Disaster prevention drills, support for senior citizens, etc.

Providing Information from Community Newsletters and Notices from Public Offices

Consultation Service for Foreign Residents

If you are struggling with your everyday life or don't understand something, you can have a consultation at Chiba City International Association.

Available Languages and Time Slots:

To find out about the languages offered and the times when they are available, please scan the QR code to access the time slots on the website of Chiba City International Association.

(https://ccia-chiba.or.jp/consul/foreignlife/living_consultation_foreigners)

How to Use this Service:

- (1) By calling the Chiba City International Association on 043-306-1034
- (2) By visiting the consultation desk at the Chiba City International Association

(Address: Second Floor, Fujimoto Daiichi Seimei Building, Chuo 3-3-1, Chuo Ward, Chiba City, Chiba Prefecture)

- (3) By using the QR code to access the consultation email

Community Translation and Interpretation Support System

If translation or interpretation is necessary when completing procedures at the city hall or any of the ward offices, volunteers registered at the Chiba City International Association will provide translation and interpretation services free of charge.

This service can be used for:

Administrative consultation (at the city hall or ward offices), explanatory meetings for nursery schools and schools, interviews with parents/guardians, information meetings and events at residence associations, how to register and receive treatment at hospitals etc.

How to Use

Please consult with the Chiba City International Association by phone or by email.

Tel: 043-306-1034

Email: cciatranslator@ccia-chiba.or.jp

※Scan this QR code to find more details on the website (https://ccia-chiba.or.jp/consul/translator_supporter/translator-supporter)

Published by: Chiba City Hall

Citizen's Autonomy Promotion Division, Citizen's Autonomy Promotion Department, Citizen's Affairs Bureau

International Relations Division, Citizen's Autonomy Promotion Department, Citizen's Affairs Bureau